2013 College of Commissioner Science

Class Descriptions

(101)Cub Scout Units and the Commissioner: A focus on Scout family specific commissioning. These classes are designed to help Unit Commissioners better understand how to relate, help, coach, and inspire leaders in specific units.

(102) Scout Units and the Commissioner: A focus on Scout family specific commissioning. These classes are designed to help Unit Commissioners better understand how to relate, help, coach, and inspire leaders in specific units.

(103) Varsity Units and the Commissioner: A focus on Scout family specific commissioning. These classes are designed to help Unit Commissioners better understand how to relate, help, coach, and inspire leaders in specific units.

(104) Venture Units and the Commissioner: A focus on Scout family specific commissioning. These classes are designed to help Unit Commissioners better understand how to relate, help, coach, and inspire leaders in specific units.

(105) Advanced Commissioner Lifesaving: This class will help UCs learn how to go beyond simple conversations regarding units. It will help provide them with resources and ideas to help leaders look at concerns, problems and out-of-the-box solutions.

(106) 11-Yr Old LDS Patrols & the Commissioner: A focus on LDS units that have 11-yr old Scouts. This class will help UCs gain an understanding of how to support leaders in working within both LDS and Scout policies regarding New Scout Patrols.

(107) Recruiting & Releasing Commissioners: This class will help DCs learn how to find people outside of the LDS construct when looking for Commissioners for other faith based and community units; also in looking for Roundtable Commissioners. Ideas on how to move someone from a commissioner responsibility and have them feel good about the change.

(108) Journey to Excellence – Not as Hard as It Looks: How to use JTE and involving Scouts, leaders and parents in the journey.

(109) Unit Visits/Unit Visit Tracking: An opportunity to learn where to find this program; how to keep it updated. The importance of this tracking and how it relates to the districts' JTE will be addressed.

(110) Rechartering on Time – All the Help You Will Ever Need: The importance of rechartering on time and some ideas on how to make it happen.

(111) COR & the Commissioner: This class will help commissioners understand how Commissioner Service relates to the COR; the importance of an open and positive relationship with CORs.

(112) Online Resources – Where & How to Find Them: The many websites available to commissioners: where to find them; how to navigate them.

(113) Commissioning for LDS Units: This class will explore the unique role of the commissioner in working with LDS units. A class to help LDS leaders understand how being a commissioner and an LDS leader are complementary to each other.

(114) Commissioning for Community Units: This class is a how-to in relating to and understanding how community units work and ways a commissioner can support the unit in their goals and objectives.

(115) Cultural Understanding/Ethnic & Faith Based Units: This class will teach some skills in relating to other faiths and provide an opportunity to learn about cultural and ethnic differences. It will also help UCs see how the more we think things and people are different, the more we can see the values and lessons in Scouting work for all peoples.