Silver Moccasin National Youth Leader Training

The Silver Moccasin / National Youth Leader Training experience is for Boy Scouts who display leadership potential. For one week, Scouts will live the patrol method, learn effective leadership skills, practice scoutcraft skills and enjoy Scouting in a full-sized troop with other youth leaders from troops through the council.

Scouts attending the NYLT course will have the opportunity to experience first-hand the satisfaction which comes from living the patrol method and operating in an effective troop environment as was intended by Scouting's founder, Lord Baden-Powell of Gilwell. In addition to leadership skills and experiences, Youth leaders participating in the conference will also have constant reminders that SCOUTING is FUN as they play games throughout the day and at the campfire programs.

Sound Exciting? It is!
