SUGGESTIONS FOR OPENING AND CLOSING CEREMONIES

Opening Ceremony: Four Directions

Materials: Four Cub Scouts, each with a poster with a large letter for his direction on it. On the back, the following is written for each boy to read.

Cubmaster: Finding our way to our destination in the park is aided by the use of a compass, which shows the four directions--north, south, east, and west. (Each Cub Scout enters from his side of the room or outdoor area, holding one of four posters with a large letter for his direction on it. On the back, the following is written for each boy to read):

Cub Scout 1 ("E"): I represent the East. From me comes the sun each day, giving light to all living things to help them to be strong and healthy.

Cub Scout 2 ("S"): I represent the South. From me comes heat and rain, so all living things have warmth and water to drink.

Cub Scout 3 ("N"): I represent the North. From me comes cold and snow, so all living things can experience coolness and the beauty of winter.

Cub Scout 4 ("W"): I represent the West. To me, the sun comes at the end of each day, giving the world darkness so all living things can rest.

Cubmaster: We gather from all directions, joined together in the Law of the Pack. Will everyone please stand, give the Cub Scout sign, and join me in reciting the Law of the Pack.

Closing Ceremony 1: My Backyard

Materials: Six Scouts

Cub Scout 1: My backyard is a wondrous place, I can stake a claim for a thinking space.

Cub Scout 2: I can pitch a tent and sleep in the rain, Or listen to the whistle of a faraway train.

Cub Scout 3: I can throw a ball to mother or dad Or just be alone when I get mad.

Cub Scout 4: I can plant a garden or climb a tree, Or get my dog, Ralph, to chase after me.

Cub Scout 5: Sometimes we even have den meetings there. I've finished my Wolf and started my Bear!

Cub Scout 6: Yeah, the backyard's the place where I run When I really want to have some fun.

Closing Ceremony 2

Materials: Five Scouts

Cub Scout 1: I go to the skateboard park a lot with my friends. It keeps me fit and healthy, with fun that never ends.

Cub Scout 2: I love the bike trail in my park; I exercise my muscles. As I get peddling stronger, my pace really hustles.

Cub Scout 3: My favorite thing is walking; I do it every day, to and from the park I go, with my best friend, Jay.

Cub Scout 4: A swimming pool is in my park, I love to take a swim. I often race my friends across, and very often win.

Cub Scout 5: We all enjoy our local parks and know for us it's good, to get outside and meet our friends, not just because we should.

(The preassigned den retires the flags.)
