CORE VALUE FOR NOVEMBER RESPECT

Monthly Highlight

Character Connection Respect

- Show that you value others by how you treat them
- Find one way to make the world a better place
- Memorize the Outdoor Code
- Be kind to animals
- Learn how to care for the Flag

Respect: Showing regard for the worth of someone or something. Respect is something we should all practice every day. We should strive to be respectful of others, of our surroundings, in what we say and do, and most of all we should have respect for ourselves. Cub Scouts will learn that if they are respectful of others, others will respect them.

Photography Belt Loop

- Point out the major features of a camera to your den or family and explain the function of each part. Parts could include film, lens, shutter, power on and off, zoom, battery, flash, display panel, case, settings, etc.
- Discuss with your den leader or adult partner, the benefits and contributions photography makes to modern life. Report what you learned to your den or family.
- 3. Using a camera, take at least 10 pictures of your family, pet, or scenery; show these to your den.

Respect your efforts, respect yourself. Self-respect leads to self-discipline. When you have both firmly under your belt, that's real power. Clint Eastwood

Football is like life - it requires perseverance, self-denial, hard work, sacrifice, dedication and respect for authority. Vince Lombardi

The National Den Award recognizes dens that conduct a quality, year-round program. Service projects, Cub Scout Academics and Sports, field trips, character development, and Cub Scout camping are areas that are emphasized. Dens earn the award as a team, not as individual den members. The recognition is a ribbon for the den flag or den doodle.

To earn the National Den Award, a Cub Scout den must

A. Have at least 50 percent of the den's Tiger Cubs, Cub Scouts, or Webelos Scouts attend two den meetings and one pack meeting or activity each month of the year.

- B. Complete six of the following during the year:
- 1. Use the denner system within the den.
- 2. In a Tiger Cub den, use shared leadership and rotate the boy/adult host team.
- 3. Have 50 percent of the den go on three field trips per year. A field trip may be used in place of a den meeting.
- 4. As a den, attend a Cub Scout day camp, Cub Scout or Webelos Scout resident camp, or a council family camping event with at least 50 percent of the den membership.
- 5. Conduct three den projects or activities leading to a Character Connections discussion.
- 6. As a den, participate in at least one of the Cub Scout Sports programs.
- 7. As a den, participate in at least one of the Cub Scout Academics programs.
- 8. Have 50 percent of the den participate in a den conservation/resource project.
- 9. Have 50 percent of the den participate in at least one den service project.
